

ROTORUA INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL BOARD OF TRUSTEES POLICY

ASSOCIATIONS / GROUPS

Rationale:

The Board encourages the formation of informal associations of members of the community to support students learning and raises funds to provide additional resources for the school. These group activities should compliment the work and aims of the school.

Guidelines:

1. The Board will encourage and assist groups in their fund raising activities.
2. The Board will communicate regularly with the appropriate community group and advise of any school projects that would benefit from their fundraising
3. All such associations and community groups will be requested to seek the permission of the Board prior to undertaking any fund raising activities under the name of the school.

Conclusion:

The Rotorua Intermediate School Board of Trustees supports community groups formed to provide support to the school and its activities, and wishes to ensure good communication and relationships with these groups. The School will have a set of management procedures that will facilitate compliance with legislation and regulations.
